LUCOL :-

IS THE BEST
PAINT
OIL!

Save Half the Amount of Your Oil Bill Through Saving in Pigment.

Every painter should use Lucol instead of Linseed Oil, because:

1. Lucol is more durable than Linseed Oil.
2. Lucol is more economical than Linseed Oil.

PROOF THAT LUCOL IS MORE DURABLE.

Six years of actual use in exterior house painting in California (the most trying climate for paints), in the burning heat of the Arizona Desert, the Arctic cold of Alaska, and on the Atlantic coast, have fully and practically shown that Lucol always outlasts Linseed Oil under the same conditions. All the acid works in San Francisco have discarded Linseed Oil for Lucol.

ILLUSTRATE THIS YOURSELF.

Put strong ammonia on Linseed and Lucol paints. The Linseed paints are destroyed in a few minutes; the Lucol paints are practically unad-ected.

ECONOMICAL.

Break up 1 lb. paste, white lead in one pint of Lucol, and the same quantity in one pint of Linseed Oil.
Spread the paints on similar dark surfaces for comparison. The Lucol paint spreads as far as and covers much better than the Linseed paint.
To get equally good covering with the Linseed paint you have to use 2 1/2 lb. of white lead to one pint of Linseed Oil. This means a saving of 1 lb. of paste lead to each pint of Lucol used, or 6 lbs. to every gallon, equivalent to your saving more than half the first cost of the Lucol.

Lucol is not in competition with cheap Linseed Oil substitutes.

"LITTLE GLASS SLIPPER"

Dailey's Company Give a Good Show of "Cinderella."

"Cinderella" was played by the Dailey company to a large audience Saturday evening. It was handsomer mounted and the costumes were elegant. Miss Kate Dalgleish acted the title role charmingly throughout. Misses Kittie Belmont and Genevieve Nannary, as "her cruel sisters," were very amusing in their stage business. Richard Scott was princely to a dot as Prince Felix, while P. A. Nannary gave Baron Pompellini all of the pomp the character was intended to carry. Louis Belmont, Al. H. Hallett and Jean Weiner—as "Pedro," "Alidoro" and "Dandini," respectively—were all lively. Mr. Hallett made a lot of fun in a bit of burlesque minstrelsy at the court of the prince.

Miss Mollie Stockmeyer, besides acting the fairy queen in good style, made a great hit, while the palace scene was on, in song and dance specialties. She sang "Like no a Like," giving the native pronunciation precisely, and "Maui Girl," with some original catches that made the house roar. Dressed in a beautiful costume, in which the Hawaiian ensign was predominant, Miss Stock-meyer danced in a light and gay step of her own, to a hula tune. She was loudly cheered. The little Misses Nellie McLennan and Elsie Bradley made blithe-looking fairies.
Nellie sang "Aloha Oe" delightfully clear and sweet in the fairyland scene. An enthusiastic encore and two bouquets rewarded her effort.

At the close of the third act James Campbell's pair of Shetland ponies appeared, drawing the fairy coach for "Cinderella's" transport to the palace. They behaved quite respect-ably.

This afternoon Genevieve Nannary is having her benefit to a large audience in "A Night Oil." The last regular performance of the season will be "Wages of Sin" to-morrow, and Mr. Dailey's benefit will be played on Wednesday evening.

GREAT CAPTAIN NO MORE.

Marshal Hitchcock Removes the Head of the Mounted Patrol.

Marshal Hitchcock has at last come to the conclusion that Captain Klemme of the mounted patrol would be more at home in private life than as a public servant and guardian of the peace. Klemme was summarily dismissed on Saturday afternoon, and although no reasons were given out, it is generally believed that it was for insubordination. It was reported by some of the knowing ones a few weeks ago that Klemme's removal from the force was under consideration, and that the Marshal was only waiting for a favorable opportunity to discharge him.

A certain scene enacted at the receiving station early Saturday morning may have had something to do with Klemme's dismissal. It was shortly after one o'clock when Captain Klemme's patrolmen brought in a hack and horse which they stated had been found without a driver. Instead of turning the arrest over to Captain Rosehill, of the regular force, who was on watch, as the regulations call for, Klemme thought that being a captain could enter the arrest himself.
After a passage of words, strong and otherwise, Captain Klemme allowed the owner of the hack to go scot free, preferring that to the humiliation of bowing to another captain's will. The matter was explained to Senior Captain Robert Parker and he took Rosehill's part.

With the removal of Captain Klemme and turning of Oso over to be believed the backing and jealousy so rampant in the police force will come to an end. Lieutenant Cordes has been promoted to the captaincy.

Dailey's Benefit.

Judging from the selections made by the company, we shall witness an exceptional performance on Wednesday evening, when Manager Dailey will be the recipient of a testimonial tendered by our best citizens. A condensed version of "Hamlet," which includes all the powerful speeches and scenes, will be rendered. The two farcical creations, "A Kiss in the Dark" and "A Day in Court," together with a musical olio, which will include Miss Stockmeyer's native songs and dance, will indeed make an interesting bill.

Beyond Comparison

Are the good qualities possessed by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Above all it purifies the blood, thus strengthening the nerves; it regulates the digestive organs, invigorates the kidneys and liver, tones and builds up the entire system, cures Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Catarrh and Rheumatism.
Get Hood's and the only Hood's.

Hood's Pills

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, biliousness, jaundice, indigestion, sick headache, etc.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will always prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. The same treatment is a sure cure for lame back. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the
